Page 47 Spelling answers

A.

1. advise = advice

Many English words can be nouns and verbs without a change in spelling. However, some words which end in -ice when they are nouns end with -ise when they become verbs. For example, practice (noun) = practise (verb)

2. acheive = achieve

A lot of English words use a combination of i and e. The order of these letters can be confusing.

In most words where these letters are pronounced as ee (as in cheese), the i comes before the e (for example, siege, thief, field, belief, piece) unless the letters are preceded by the letter c (for example, ceiling, conceit, receive, deceive).

However, not all words follow this rule. Exceptions include caffeine, protein, neither, either and seize.

When the letters are pronounced ay (as in hate), the e comes before the i (for example, weigh, veil, neighbour, eight).

There are other words which must be learned individually. These are: foreign, forfeit, height, heir, leisure, their, surfeit, sovereign.

3. aquire = acquire

A lot of English words contain silent letters - in other words, a letter which we do not pronounce when we say the word. There are very few rules to tell you which is which, so you must learn each word individually or use a dictionary to check the spelling of a word if you are not sure.

Answers

Some common examples of silent letters include:

Silent A: February parliament marriage

Silent B: comb bomb womb doubt

Silent C: conscience scene discipline scissors

Silent D: Wednesday handsome

Silent G: campaign design

Silent H: ghost school vehicle rhythm

Silent I: business hygiene nuisance

Silent N: autumn column condemn

Silent T: listen mortgage

Silent U: biscuit colleague (which also has a silent e at the end) guarantee guess

Silent W: answer whole

Silent GH: though thorough weigh height

4. swimming = swimming

We double the last letter of single-syllable words ending with a single vowel and a single consonant when we add a suffix (e.g., -ing):

swim - swimming run - running dip - dipped

We usually do the same thing if a two-syllable word is stressed on the second syllable:

begin - beginning regret - regrettable prefer - preferring

We do not double the last letter in the following cases:

- when a word ends with w, x or y
- when the suffix begins with a consonant (e.g., bad - badly)
- when a word ends with i and the suffix -ly is added (e.g., playful - playfully)
- when two vowels come before the final consonant (e.g., weep - weeping)

5. thieves = thieves

Most nouns are regular. This means that we add an s to make them plural (e.g., car - cars). However, some nouns are irregular - we either do not add an s to the word to make it plural or we add s plus some other letters.

In nouns which end with a consonant and y, the y changes to i and we add s:

party - parties baby - babies worry - worries

In nouns which end with s, sh, tch and x, we add es:

bus - buses dish - dishes watch - watches box - boxes

In some nouns which end in f or fe, we replace the f with a v and add es.

calf - calves half - halves knife - knives life - lives wife - wives

In some words which end with o, we add es.

cargo - cargoes echo - echoes hero - heroes

Some words do not change at all.

fish, deer, sheep

And some words have their own individual rules:

man - men child - children woman - women person - people

6. hoping = hoping

We drop the e from a word when a suffix which begins with a vowel (e.g., -ing) is added to a word which ends in a consonant plus a silent e:

hope - hoping tape - taping give - giving immature - immaturity

Answers

We also drop the e from a word when a suffix which begins with a vowel is added to a word which ends in a vowel plus a silent e:

continue - continuity    pursue - pursuing    argue - arguable

When a suffix begins with a consonant (e.g., -ment) we do not usually drop the e, although there are some exceptions (e.g., awe - awful, true - truly)

7. happyness = happiness

We change the y to i when it follows a consonant and a suffix is added (e.g., happy - happiness)

We do not usually change the y to i when the y follows a vowel (e.g., play - playful) or when the suffix added is -ing (e.g., pry - prying)

Note:

Most large towns and cities in Britain have 'Park and Ride' schemes. These are large car parks outside city centres where drivers can park their car, usually for free. They can then take a bus into the city centre.

Distances and speed limits in Britain are in miles or miles per hour (1 mile = 1.6 kilometres). The maximum speed limit in Britain is 60mph on single-lane roads outside towns, or 70mph on dual-carriageways or motorways, in most towns and cities, the maximum speed limit is usually 20 or 30 mph. Drivers who are caught speeding can face penalties ranging from a fine to imprisonment, depending on how fast they are driving and where. They can also have their driving licence suspended.

Drink driving is considered a very serious offence. Offenders automatically have their driving licence suspended for at least a year, will normally receive a fine and may go to prison.
